The Lees-McRae College women's volleyball team extended its winning streak to six matches on Wednesday night, holding off Erskine College for a 3-1 victory in Conference Carolinas play.

Lees-McRae (8-6, 4-0 CC) won the match by scores of 25-21, 25-18, 24-26, and 25-14 to stay atop the conference standings. The Bobcats posted a .234 hitting percentage on the night, while recording eight blocks and limiting Erskine (7-6, 2-1 CC) to a .034 clip on the attack. Megan Epperson (St. John, Ind.) paced the Bobcats with 12 kills, as Dana Oliver (Davie, Fla.) and Taylor Clendenin (Statesville, N.C.) tallied nine kills each. Lauren Fox (Garland, Texas) added eight kills and a match-high four blocks, as Megan Mitchell (Minden, Nev.) and Sariah Suryadevara (Cincinnati, Ohio) posted contest-bests of 34 assists and 25 digs, respectively. Suryadevara also chipped in a match-high five service aces.

Reigning conference player of the week Sandra Campbell posted a match-high 15 kills to pace Erskine, as Larz Chabra recorded a double-double with 26 assists and 12 digs. Brooke Dodge and Liz Massey tallied 11 and 10 digs, respectively, as Campbell chipped in a match-high four blocks.

Lees-McRae returns to the court on Friday when the Bobcats travel to Tigerville, S.C. to take on North Greenville University in a conference matchup. First serve is slated for 7 p.m.
