Both the Lenoir-Rhyne Men's and Women's Golf Teams are tied for sixth after the first round Monday of the Tusculum Fall Golf Classic, which is being held at the Link Hills Country Club. Twelve schools are competing on both sides.

For the men, L-R shot a 292 (+8) on the par-71, 6,763-yard course while Tusculum is in the lead after 18 holes with a one-under 283. Tennessee Wesleyan's Cody Godfrey sits in first with a 67 (-4).

Lenoir-Rhyne is being led by senior Sam Pressley (Knoxville, Tenn.), who shot a 72 (+1) and is currently tied for 13th. Freshman Zach Burket (Taylorsville, N.C.) and junior Brandon Squier (Advance, N.C.) are tied for 18th with a 73 (+2) for the Bears.

On the women's side, Lenoir-Rhyne finished the first round with a 338 (+50) on the par-72, 5,805-yard course. Tusculum also leads the women's tournament with a 301 (+13) and has the top individual so far in Jillian Corum, who carded a 73 (+1).

For the Bears, senior Katie Thackerson (Earl, N.C.) is tied for sixth at the halfway point of the tournament with a four-over 76. Junior Megan Katsch (Wilmington, N.C.) finished with an 81 (+9) and is tied for 20th overall.

The second and final round of the tournament takes place on Tuesday.
