Watauga High sophomore Savannah Wood will officially tee off at 8:30 a.m. Monday on the tenth hole at the Pinehurst Country Club #6 course.

Wood, making her second appearance at the Class 4A Girls State Championship Tournament, fired an a ten-over 82 Tuesday at the Western Regional at the Pine Island Country Club in Charlotte. She finished in a three-way tie for fifth with Abbey Hartsell of Alexander Central and Madalyn Davis of McDowell. Allyson Markiewicz of Ardrey Kell and Victoria Allred of Reagan both fired a 76, but Markiewicz won the regional crown as she defeated Allred in a sudden-death playoff hole.

Alexander Central qualified for the state tournament as a team. The Cougars finished third in the field. Pfafftown Reagan nosed out Ardrey Kell by one shot (246-247) to win the regional crown. Providence was the fourth and final team to make the cut.

The final round will be played on Tuesday.
