

Koppenhaver Scores Four In Collegiate Debut

Written by Mike Kelly

Tuesday, 15 November 2011 08:46

Will Koppenhaver, a two-time All-Northwestern 3A/4A Conference performer at Watauga High, tipped off his collegiate career last Friday night.

A freshman at Guilford College, Koppenhaver made his debut against Southern Conference powerhouse

Davidson College in an exhibition game. He played 15 minutes, scored four points, had one rebound, a steal, and an assist in a 111-64 loss. Guilford College is a Division III school in Greensboro, N.C., and a member of the Old Dominion Athletic Conference.

The Quakers take on Methodist tonight at home. Koppenhaver will face his old teammate, Damian Edwards, on New Year's Eve, December 31, when the Quakers travel to Emory & Henry.

Photo courtesy: Will Koppenhaver, Guilford College Athletics