

ASU Offers Scholarship To Holloway

Written by Mike Kelly

Saturday, 03 December 2011 09:49

Running back Tysean Holloway of Asheville High has been offered a scholarship to play football at Appalachian State University next fall. Holloway, a 6-1 185 pound senior, ran for 1,405 yards and 24 touchdowns this season for the Cougars (12-1), who won the Mountain Athletic 3A/4A Conference championship.

Holloway is expected to make a recruiting visit to ASU this weekend. The Mountaineers play Maine today at Kidd Brewer Stadium in a second-round NCAA FCS playoff game. Our coverage begins at 12 noon on AM 1450, WATA.