The Watauga High wrestling team earned a split at its tri-match Tuesday night at Lentz-Eggers Gym with Avery County and Ashe County. The Pioneers (1-1 in dual meets) defeated

Avery County 48-30, but lost to Ashe County, 52-27. Josh Coffey kept his perfect record intact as he recorded a pair of pinfalls at 113 pounds. He's 9-0 this season; Demetre Kostis kept pace with a pair of pinfall wins at 138 pounds, improving his record to 9-2 on the year.

Other dual winners for the Pioneers were: Jeremy Critcher, who picked up a pair of wins by pinfall at 195, and Adam Ushelbec, who won by pinfall and by decision at 220 pounds. The Pioneers travel to Sparta, NC, Saturday for the Alleghany Duals.
