Four members of the Lenoir-Rhyne University Women's Soccer Team were named to the 2011 NSCAA NCAA Division II All-Southeast Region Teams. NSCAA is the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

Senior defender Catherine Hauck (Lake Mary, Fla.) and junior midfielder Carley Griffin (Fresno, Calif.) earned first-team honors while senior midfielder Laura Linehan (San Diego, Calif.) was named to the second team and senior defender Kaelia Frazier (Cedar Rapids, Iowa) garnered third-team accolades.

Hauck was named to the Daktronics NCAA Division II All-American First Team last week in addition to being named the 2010 South Atlantic Conference and Daktronics Southeast Region Player Of The Year last month.

Hauck finished second on the team in goals (11) and points (26) this season and tallied 31 goals and 70 points for her career.

Hauck is a two-time First-Team All-American and SAC Player Of The Year (2010-11) who also garnered all-league and all-region honors all four seasons with the Bears.

Griffin, in her first season with Lenoir-Rhyne in 2011, also scored 11 goals for the Bears en route to First-Team All-South Atlantic Conference accolades.

Linehan led the Bears in goals (12), assists (six) and points (30) this fall and finished her collegiate career ranked second on Lenoir-Rhyne's all-time list in goals (47) and points scored (112). Linehan is a three-time all-conference and all-region honoree as well.

Frazier finished with a goal, four assists and six points this year and anchored an L-R defense which allowed just 22 goals and 21 matches including seven shutouts. Frazier has earned All-South Atlantic Conference honors the past two seasons.

All four players led Lenoir-Rhyne (17-3-1, 9-0) to its second consecutive South Atlantic Conference Regular Championship including the first league title outright in 2011. The Bears also advanced to the NCAA Division II Sweet Sixteen for the second straight year this fall.
