Hoops 4 Hope is a basketball game centered around hope. Hope for early detection, hope for increased survival, hope for a cure!! The Ashe County Lady Huskies basketball program will join the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and over 1500 colleges and high schools nationally in the organization's Play4Kay (Hoops 4 Hope) initiative. Ashe County High School will participate on Wednesday, January 25, 2012 vs Forbush. The mission of the initiative, which was brought to life in 2007, will remain intact: a nation of coaches raising breast cancer awareness on the court, across campuses, in communities and beyond. Please wear pink to support the cause.
