Just days remain until the Hickory Crawdads 2012 Hot Stove Banquet at Rock Barn Golf and Spa this Monday! The event starts with a social at 6:15 p.m. followed by the program and a delicious dinner at 7 p.m. Recently added to the great group of speakers at the event is first-ever Crawdads general manager, Marty Steele, who was named South Atlantic League GM of the Year in 1993. Steele will be joining former Crawdads pitcher and pitching coach Dave Lundquist (1994, 2004, 2006-07), former infielder Josh Bonifay (2000-2001), and former third baseman Chris Mader (1993-1994) for a discussion session. Former pitcher Neil Ramirez (2009-10) is also tentatively scheduled to join the panel. (All speakers are subject to change due to potential baseball obligations.)

In addition to the excellent panel, the Hot Stove will include season previews from area college and high school coaches, a silent auction, and a great dinner prepared by Rock Barn. Tickets for the Hot Stove are only $25 and are available right now by clicking here or calling the Front Office at (828) 322-3000. Group tables are also available and include eight seats for only $200. Space is limited, so be sure to get your tickets right now!
