

Another Wreck Just South of Blowing Rock

Written by Steve Frank

Tuesday, 07 February 2012 07:13

Injuries were called in with a crash on US 321 on the south end of Blowing Rock last night, but no one was transported after Watauga Medics arrived at the scene along with Blowing Rock Fire/Rescue. The crash was said to have been just a short distance south of the Green Park Inn and the state patrol dispatched a trooper out of Watauga to handle the crash investigation.