

Mountaineers Downs Flyers At Spartan Classic

Written by Justin Bohn
Saturday, 03 March 2012 10:00

---

Appalachian State University downs Dayton, 4-2, in the opening game of the Subway Spartan Classic Friday afternoon at Cyrill Stadium. The Mountaineers (7-5) tallied five hits with no player recording more than one. The Flyers' (2-8) Alysha Isaacson was the only player to record a pair of hits. ASU extends its winning streak to three and have won five of the last six contests.

Appalachian struck first in the bottom of the first frame when freshman Caroline Rogers doubled to left field to score juniors Meghan Smith and Allie Cashion. Senior Michelle Lighton pelted her first home run of the season to left field to extend ASU's lead to 4-0.

In the fourth-inning, Dayton got on the board when Isaacson scored on a Brandy Brown ground out to Megan Rembielak. Lauren Nacke singled to short to score Kathleen Maloof and cut the Apps' lead to 4-2.

Apps' Caitlin Wainright scattered five hits and only gave up 2 unearned runs with five strikeouts for her third complete-game on the year.

The Flyers' Kayla English allowed five hits, four runs and a walk in her second loss of the season.

The Mountaineers play Dayton again on Saturday at 1 p.m. and will face N.C. Central for the third time this season at 7 p.m. on the second day of the Subway Spartan Classic at Cyrill Stadium.