The Watauga High women's soccer team survived a sloppy playing field and knocked South Caldwell 3-2 Tuesday night in a Northwestern 3A/4A Conference game in Sawmills. Kendyl Baird, Lillie Brady and Ivy Wilcox all scored for WHS. Trailing 2-1, Brady scored the game-tying goal on an assist by Wilcox in the 55th minute of the second half; Wilcox scored the game winner 20 minutes later on a feed from Skylar Hicks. Hannah Younger had an assists on Baird goal in the first half. The Pioneers (5-2 overall; 2-0 NW3A/4A) have won four in a row. They return home to play Hibriten Friday night.

The JV match was rained out.

WHS TENNIS REMAINS UNDEFEATED

The Watauga High men's tennis team won it's sixth consecutive match by knocking off St. Stephens 5-0 in a rain-shortened Northwestern 3A/4A Conference match in Hickory Tuesday night. Michael Smith, Harrison Battle, Landon Taylor, Aaron Evans and Jackson Yates were winners in singles play. Chris Ludwig was winning his match, but the rains came before he could complete his match. The Pioneers (6-0 overall; 4-0 NW3A/4A) return home to play Fred T. Foard Thursday.
