

Pioneers Remain Unblemished

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 23 March 2012 08:02

The Watauga High men's tennis team defeated Fred T. Foard 9-0 Thursday night in a Northwestern 3A/4A Conference match in Newton, N.C. Michael Smith, Harrison Battle, Landon Taylor, Chris Ludwig, Aaron Evans and Jackson Yates won in singles; Battle and Josh Lampkins picked up a win at No.1 doubles; Ludwig and Patrick Carlson got a win at No.2 doubles; and Noah Moomaw and Spencer Schlenker were victorious at No.3 doubles.

The Pioneers (5-0 Northwestern 3A/4A Conference; 7-0 overall) return home to play Mooresville Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m.

PIONEERS, McCUNE GROUND EAGLES

The Watauga High softball team (5-4 overall) nailed down its fifth win in six games by knocking off Wilkes Central 5-1 Thursday afternoon in Moravian Falls. Winning pitcher Michala McCune turned in a stellar performance by going the distance, scattering three hits and striking out nine. Hope LaPointe continued her hot hitting by going 3-4 on the day; Taylor Drummonds and Nicole Dollar each had two hits. The Pioneers return home to play Hibriten tonight in a Northwestern 3A/4A Conference game. The Pioneers are 2-2 in league play.

The JV team defeated Wilkes Central 21-2 in five innings. Winning pitcher Kristen Gill went five innings, gave up three hits and struck out nine. Today's game with Hibriten begins with the varsity at 4:30 p.m. The JV game will follow.

Pioneers Remain Unblemished

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 23 March 2012 08:02

NORTHWESTERN 3A/4A CONFERENCE BASEBALL

THURSDAY NIGHT'S GAMES

FRED T. FOARD 6, BANDYS 4

FRIDAY NIGHT'S GAMES

HIBRITEN @ WATAUGA
HICKORY @ ST. STEPHENS
SOUTH CALDWELL @ ALEXANDER CENTRAL
FRED T. FOARD - BYE

SATURDAY'S GAMES

Pioneers Remain Unblemished

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 23 March 2012 08:02

WATAUGA @ PROVIDENCE