

ASU-Chattanooga Softball Postponed

Written by Staff Reports

Saturday, 24 March 2012 19:48

Appalachian State University softball series with Chattanooga has been postponed till Sunday at 10 a.m. at Sywassink/Lloyd Family Stadium. The Mountaineers were able to get through three innings and trail the Lady Mocs 13-2. Chattanooga used five home runs, including a pair from Michelle Fuzzard to jump out to the early lead. Play will resume at 10 a.m. and will be followed by doubleheader to wrap up the series.