For her role in leading Appalachian State University women's golf to a second-straight Low Country Intercollegiate title, Yue Xu was named the Southern Conference Golfer of the Week. The junior carded a 77-75=152 (+8) at the event in Hilton Head, S.C. to lead Appalachian to a two-stroke victory over Radford at the 15-team event. The Beijing native tied for third place at the 36-hole tournament.

Xu lowered her season stroke average to 77.38 at the tournament and stands as ASU's career stroke average leader as well, at 76.67 per round. It is the second award of her career and she keeps the honors in Boone for a second week in a row, as teammate Lauren Smith won it a week ago.
