

Rain Washes Out ASU-EKU Series

Written by Mike Flynn
Wednesday, 18 April 2012 10:58

---

Appalachian State University baseball's two-game mid-week series versus Eastern Kentucky has been cancelled due to rain. Appalachian (25-9, 10-5 SoCon) is working to replace the four games that have been rained out in the last month. Any makeup games will be announced if/when details are finalized. The first-place Mountaineers return to action on Friday when they open a three-game Southern Conference series versus Furman (18-20, 7-11 SoCon). Game times for the three-game set are slated for 6 p.m. Friday, 3 p.m. Saturday and noon Sunday at ASU's Beaver Field at Jim and Bettie Smith Stadium.