

ASU to Play Two on Saturday

Written by Mike Flynn

Saturday, 21 April 2012 08:22

Appalachian State and Furman will wrap up their Southern Conference series on Saturday with a doubleheader beginning at NOON on Saturday at ASU's Beaver Field at Jim and Bettie Smith Stadium. The latest weather forecast shows that the best conditions to play the final two games of this weekend's series may exist on Saturday. Should rain interrupt the action at any point on Saturday, the teams will return on Sunday to attempt to play all three games in their entirety. Coverage begins at 12 noon on AM 1450, WATA.