The college football season is still more than three months away, but red-shirt senior Eric Breitenstein is all ready drawing a lot of attention concerning the upcoming season. The former Watauga High great is listed among the top ten running backs to watch this season by The Sports Network. Breitenstein, a two-time All-America, has gained 3,695 yards and he has scored 46 touchdowns in his collegiate career with the Terriers. Breitenstein ran for 1,343 yards and scored 16 touchdowns as he led the Terriers to an 8-4 record. Wofford lost to Northern Iowa in the opening round of the Football Championship Series playoffs. Breitenstein ran for 131 yards and scored three times in a 28-21 loss. The Terriers open the season at Gardner-Webb on Saturday, September 1. The Terriers travel to Boone to play Appalachian State on Saturday, October 20.
