The rollercoaster ride continues for Madison Bumgarner. The left hander dropped his third game in a row Saturday night. He was victimized by the Miami Marlins, who beat the San Francisco Giants 5-3 at Marlins Park in Miami, Fla.

Bumgarner coughed up five runs, four earned, on seven hits in six innings. He struck out seven and walked two as he suffered in fourth loss of the year. Bumgarner (5-4 with a 3.14 earned-run-average) is scheduled to pitch Friday against the Chicago Cubs at AT&T Park.
