The Watauga Junior American Legion baseball team had its scheduled game with Alexander County postponed tonight at Pioneer Field. No make up date has been announced. Watauga (0-2) will play at Maiden Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m.

"I don't know if we will be able to make this game with Alexander up," said Watauga coach Bradley Rudisill. "I'll get together with their coach sometime next week and see what happens. We don't have too many free dates left after this week. Our schedule really starts kicking up next week."

Starting next Saturday, Watauga will play four games in five days. After tomorrow's game at Maiden, the Junior Legion takes on McDowell Monday night at home at 6 p.m. The McDowell game was originally rained out May 24.
