The Region 7 All-Stars suffered their first loss at the Powerade North Carolina State Games on Saturday. Region 5, which dominated pool play winning three consecutive games, blasted Region 7 by the ten-run mercy rule, 14-2 at BB&T Ball Park. The loss moves Region 7 into Sunday morning's Bronze Medal Game at 10 a.m., against Region 8 out of the Asheville area. Region 8 suffered its first loss Saturday afternoon, falling to Region 6, 3-1. Region 5 (the Winston-Salem area) takes on Region 6 (the Charlotte area) in the Gold Medal game Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. Regions 5 and 6 have pretty much dominated the field thjs weekend. Region 5 has outscored its opponents 27-4 in three games; it's been pretty much the same for Region 6, which has outscored its opponents, 25-12 (that includes a 10-9 win against Region 2 Friday night). Tyler Jones was 1-2 in Region 7's loss Saturday night, and for the tournament, the rising Watauga High senior is 3-5 (for a .600 batting average) and he's driven in a run. The medal-round games will be played at BB&T Ball Park (Wake Forest University); the seventh-and-fifth-place games will be played at Kernersville-Glenn High School.
