

WHS Soccer Postponed A Second Time

Written by Mike Kelly

Tuesday, 09 October 2012 13:24

Watauga High Athletics Director Tom Wright has announced that Tuesday night's soccer match between the Pioneers and Hickory has been postponed. The game will now be played

Thursday evening with the JV game beginning at 5 p.m. and the varisty match at 7 p.m. The Pioneers and Red Tornadoes were scheduled to play Monday night, but the game was rained out. WHS (12-1-3 overall; 4-0-2 Northwestern 3A/4A Conference) is in first place in the NW3A/4A Conference standings. The Pioneers also handed Hickory (14-1) its only loss of the season.