Red-shirt freshman Sean Price of Appalachian State University has been added to the Jerry Rice Watch List by The Sports Network. Price, who stands 6-foot-

5, and weighs in at 210 pounds, has become a primary target for Mountaineers quarterback Jamal Jackson.

That pair teamed up for a game-winning 22-yard touchdown pass with 22 seconds left to play against Samford in a 28-25 win last week. The win moved ASU into a second-place tie with Wofford College, Saturday's opponent at Kidd Brewer Stadium, in the Southern Conference standings. He caught five passes for 90 yards last week against the Bulldogs, and 82 of those yards came in the fourth quarter.

Price already has drawn comparisons to former ASU great Brian Quick. The redshirt freshman didn't play in two of the Mountaineers' first three games, but went over 100 receiving yards in three straight games to tie a school record. He has caught 34 passes for 488 yards and six touchdowns in his first five games.
