The Watauga High girls swimming team won three of their four dual meets as well as five events at a five-team Tuesday in Hickory. The Pioneers defeated

Fred T. Foard 51-39, Hickory 55-35, and North Lincoln 63-23. WHS lost to St. Stephens, 52-38. Carson Middlebrook paced WHS by winning two events, the 100 breast stroke (1:16.43) and the 200 IM (2:35.20). Darby Middlebrook won the 500 free style (5:41.81), Anne Taylor won the 100 free style (58.78), and the Pioneers also won the 200 medley relay (Carson Middlebrook, Doria Kosmala, Darby Middlebrook and Maddy Allain) in 2:07.29

"Tonight was one of the toughest nights we will face as a team. All the teams we swam against had strong, versatile swimmers," said WHS coach David Gragg. "It was tough to know what they would be swimming. We went with the line-up that would help get new faces in events and rest some other swimmers.

"Carson Middlebrook swam well in the 200 IM and 100 Breast. Anne Taylor had a good swim in the 100 and anchoring the relays. Darby Middlebrook turned in another strong performance in the 500 as did Julianna Silver and Maddy Allain. We are just going to keep working and training until we get to conference."

The WHS boys weren't as fortunate. They lost three of their four dual meets and did not win any events. The Pioneers lost to North Lincoln 54-36, Fred T. Foard 46-44 and to St. Stephens 48-42; the Pioneers defeated Hickory, 53-37.

Marcus Funston had WHS' best showing of the night with a second-place finish in the 100 butterfly (58.56). Joel Brown finished third in the 100 back stroke (1:09.79), Forrest Brown finished third in the 100 free style (54.14), Noah Allain finished third in the 100 butterfly (1:03.32) and Bardon Michelsen finished third in the 50 free style (26.14).

The Pioneers also finished third in the 400 free style relay (Forrest Brown, Joel Brown, Noah Allain, Marcus Funston) in 3:47.69.

"Marcus Funston turned in a strong swim in the 100 Fly and returned to swim the 500 Free not long after finishing that race," Gragg said. "Adam Patton swam well in the 200 Free and 100 Back. Chris Winkler swam the 200 IM for the first time. I told him to just get a legal swim so that we could work on the time later."

The Pioneers travel to Lenior for a meet next Wednesday, December 19. But the meet might be moved to Lenior-Rhyne University.
