The Northwestern 3A/4A Conference season officially tipped off Tuesday night. The Alexander Central girls (10-0 overall; 1-0 NW3A/4A) remained perfect as they knocked off St. Stephens, 67-49. Marie Ritchie led the way with 16 points. The Cougars led 43-21 at halftime and cruised home. Alexander Central also played without its best player Maddi Suddreth, who has missed the last two games with a foot injury.

Head coach Matt Taylor expects to have her back by January. St. Stephens (2-6; 0-1) was led by Virginia McMahan with 14 points and Autumn Williams with 11 points.

The St. Stephens boys (8-0; 1-0) remained undefeated with a 58-38 win against Alexander Central.

The Indians, who shot 48% from the floor in the first half, were led by Zack Houston with 17 points.
