

Parkway, Valle Crucis Win Middle School Titles

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 15 February 2013 06:43

The Parkway Middle School girls basketball team won the Watauga County Middle School championship by knocking off Hardin Park 30-26 at Watauga High's Lentz-Eggers Gym. Parkway led 13-11 at halftime. Brielle McKinney led Parkway with 11 points; Katherine Stapleton led Hardin Park with seven points.

Valle Crucis won the boys championship by knocking off Hardin Park, 38-35. Jeremy Ringler paced Valle Crucis and led all scorers with 19 points. Evan Suggs led Hardin Park with 10 points. Valle Crucis rallied from a six-point halftime deficit to win the championship. GBR would also like to thank Andy Eggers for providing us with these updates all season.

Girls:

Parkway - 30, Parkway 26

Leading Scores:

Hardin Park- Katherine Stapleton- 7 points, Brynne Gould - 6 points, Maddie Darner - 6 points

Parkway - Brielle McKinney - 11 points, Cassidy Hubbard - 7 points, Jasmine McKinney, Alden

Parkway, Valle Crucis Win Middle School Titles

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 15 February 2013 06:43

McClure, Brooke Chiarolanzio- All with 4 points.

Boys:

Valle Crucis - 38, Hardin Park 35

Leading Scores:

Hardin Park- Evan Suggs - 10 points, Corey West - 8 points, Hayes Henderson - 7 points,
August Sauls - 6 points

Valle Crucis- Jeremy Ringler - 19 points, Byars Carney - 10 points, Bryce Wallace - 7 points,
Jett Dhing - 2 points