Madison Bumgarner got the 2013 season off on the right foot with a 3-0 shutout win against the Los Angeles Dodgers at Dodgers Stadium Tuesday night. The left hander from Hickory, N.C., went eight innings, scattered two hits, he didn't walk anyone and he struck out six as the Giants (1-1) evened their three-game series against the Dodgers at a win apiece. The teams will wrap up their three-game series tonight.

The only hits off Bumgarner (1-0) were doubles by Andre Ethier and A.J. Ellis. Sergio Romo worked a perfect ninth to earn his first save of the season. Bumgarner is 5-1 with a 1.94 ERA in six starts against the Dodgers since May 19, 2011. He pitched eight scoreless innings for the second successive time against the Giants' biggest rival.
