

Avery Apartment Evacuated Before Dawn

Written by Steve Frank

Wednesday, 15 May 2013 12:47

Avery authorities evacuated an apartment complex early this morning in Elk Park and treated some of the residents there for exposure to some type of fumes. The incident occurred just before 5 this morning at the apartments Main Street, one man observed with some skin issues possibly from exposure to toxins in the air inside the complex, but no fire was discovered. Fire and other emergency services were checking for some heating source to be the cause. Elk Park firemen cleared the scene at about 7 this morning.