Appalachian State University's 2012 football media guide has been judged best in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

The honor marks the second time that Appalachian State's football guide has been named tops among NCAA Division I FCS programs — the Mountaineers' 2009 media guide was also ranked No. 1 nationally. Appalachian's 2007 and 2008 media guides placed second nationally and the 2010 media guide cover was judged the nation's best.

The 2012 Appalachian State football media guide was produced by assistant athletics director for sports information Mike Flynn, former associate sports information director Charles Cochrum and assistant sports information director Ryan Bower.
