The Hickory Crawdads, South Atlantic League affiliate of the Texas Rangers, have partnered with Minor League Baseball Charities and 51 other clubs in a "15 for 15" initiative to raise funds to help out those communities that were recently affected by the recent tornado devastation near Oklahoma City. Beginning today, and running for the next 15 days through June 17, the 'Dads and other participating clubs have agreed to donate 15% of every order received through their online stores to MiLB Charities to use toward the relief efforts.

"The Crawdads are proud to be a part of this baseball-wide team effort to help raise funds for those affected by the devastating tornados in Oklahoma," said Crawdads Director of Ticket Operations and Merchandising Douglas Locascio. "It's a great way for our fans to contribute to the cause, while also getting some cool gear and showing their Crawdads pride!"
