

Church Employee Charged with Embezzlement

Written by Steve Frank

Thursday, 13 June 2013 12:40

Boone Police Investigators have charged a Boone church employee with embezzlement. Janet Marie Culley, 41 is charged with four counts of Felony Embezzlement, Culley was taken before the Watauga County Magistrate where she was placed under a $10,000 secured bond pending a July 29th court appearance. Mrs. Culley is alleged to have misappropriated company funds to her own use while working as a finance/ministry administrative assistant for the First Baptist Church of Boone.