Lenoir-Rhyne University's Denzel Dillingham has garnered 2012-13 NCCSIA All-State College Division Second-Team honors in men's basketball. NCCSIA is the North Carolina Collegiate Sports Information Association. Dillingham, a sophomore guard from Hickory, N.C., led the team in scoring this season (17.9 ppg) en route to 2012-13 All-South Atlantic Conference First-Team accolades.

Dillingham also averaged 4.5 rebounds per outing and hit a team-high 65 three-pointers as the Bears finished with an 18-9 record, their most victories in four years. Nominees were submitted by North Carolina sports information professionals and voted on by the NCCSIA members.

Founded in 2002, The North Carolina Collegiate Sports Information Association (NCCSIA) is comprised of sports information professionals from NCAA Division I, II, III, NAIA and independent institutions from the state of North Carolina.

The purpose of the organization is to promote collegiate athletics at all schools. Membership is open to anyone affiliated with a college, university or conference located in North Carolina, and whose area of responsibility lies within sports information.

NCCSIA selects all-state teams in the University (Division I) and College (Division II, III, NAIA) divisions for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, softball and baseball.
