

'Dads Game Suspended

Written by Staff Reports
Friday, 05 July 2013 18:54

---

The Hickory Crawdads' July 4th game against the Kannapolis Intimidators has been suspended due to rain. The game, which was tied 2-2 in the bottom of the seventh, will be finished Friday, July 5th, starting at 5:00 pm. The 'Dads and Intimidators will play Friday's regularly scheduled 9-inning game at the original start time of 7:00 pm. Any rainout ticket will serve as a voucher, redeemable for any future Crawdads game excluding the August 3rd Christian Concert. Tickets may be exchanged by visiting the Crawdads ticket office at the main gate. The Crawdads are home through the weekend with games scheduled for Friday through Sunday. Friday is Texas Rangers Night as the 'Dads will don Rangers uniforms as they take on the Intimidators. There will also be post-game fireworks courtesy of Galaxy Food Stores, and Texas Pete. Saturday will feature the "Million Dollar Man" Ted DiBiase at Crawdads Stadium! Exclusive Meet and Greet tickets are only $22! That includes a ticket to the game, a pre-game meal, and two autographed photos with the Hall-of-Fame wrestler! Sunday wraps up the home stand with First Responder Appreciation Night, with all first responders with an ID receiving free admission to the game!