Rising sophomore Brianna McCoy of the Ashe County High softball team helped Region 7 to a fourth-place finish at the Powerade State Games of North Carolina last week in Charlotte, N.C. McCoy was one of five players from the Mountain Valley 1A/2A Conference on the Region 7 team. McCoy got the starting nod in game two last Tuesday evening against Region 8. McCoy tossed six shutout innings and allowing just two hits, walked three and struck out eight as Region 7 coasted to an easy 10-0 victory. Cassidy Joyner of Surry Central knocked in five runs. Region 2 defeated Region 7 3-2 in eight innings in the bronze medal game. Joyner homered in the losing cause.
