Ryder Jones, who played at Watauga High this past spring, is off to a great start with the Arizona League Giants, the rookie affiliate of the San Francisco Giants in the Arizona League.

The former Pioneer and North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year, went 1-2 with a walk and a run scored Sunday night in a 9-0 win against the AZL Royals.

Jones is hitting .375 in three games this season. The AZL Giants (12-2 and in first place in the Arizona League) take on the AZL Royals in a rematch tonight.

Jones was selected by the Giants in the second round of the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft on June 6.
