The deadline for filing for open municipal seats in Watauga County ended Friday at noon, with several candidates holding off until the last minutes to enter races. In the Boone mayoral race, two downtown business owners filed: John Mena, owner of Haircut 101, and Brad Harmon, owner of Harmon's Dixie Pride. The two will be pitted against Boone town council member Andy Ball, who submitted his name on the first available day to file two weeks ago.

Joining the Boone town council race are James Milner, Matthew Capehart and Mark Templeton. Frank "Quint" David, Jennifer Peña, and current town council member Rennie Brantz filed on July 5.

For the remainder of municipal elections in Watauga County, the candidates are as follows:

Blowing Rock

J. B. Lawrence - Mayor

Dan Phillips – Mayor

Doug Matheson – Town Council
