The NCCA has announced its coaching staffs for the 2014 North Carolina-South Carolina All-Star basketball games and the East-West All-Star basketball, soccer and football games. And three regional coaches are on that list.

Scott Waugh, who led the Wilkes Central High girl's basketball team to the state finals two years ago, has been named the head coach of the west girls in the East-West Senior All-Star basketball game in Greensboro next July. Waugh has led the Eagles to 66 wins the last three years, which includes a 30-2 record in 2011-12. Wilkes Central was 16-11 last season. Wilkes Central football coach Jeremy Funderburk and assistant coach Keith Phillips of Ashe County have been named assistant coaches for the East-West Senior All-Star football game next summer.
