

Presley, Dolphins Fall In Preseason Opener

Written by Mike Kelly

Monday, 05 August 2013 16:59

De'Andre Presley, who signed a two-year deal with the Miami Dolphins back in January, made his preseason debut Sunday night in a 24-20 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, OH. Presley, an All-America at Appalachian State University, is his second season with the Dolphins. Presley, who wasn't selected in the National Football League Draft, played four games for Miami in 2012 after he was signed and added to the Dolphins' practice squad. He made his NFL debut in October of last year.

Presley returned three kick-off for a 23-yard average, with his longest return for 26 yards.

Presley also returned three punts for a six-yard average, which included a 15-yard rreturn.

Presley also fumbled, but the Dolphins recovered it.

Miami (0-1 in preseason play) travels to Jacksonville Friday night.

Photo Courtesy: De'Andre Presley, ASU Athletics