Ashe County High senior Alex Laws raised his stock this past weekend. Laws, a member of the HJuskies' baseball team, was selected to play in the Blue-Grey Classic this past Saturday and Sunday in Greensboro. And Laws performed very well at the Classic, which is an invitation only recruiting and scouting showcase.

Laws, who played for the Team Grey Greensboro, won Saturday's opening game by knocking off the Blue Raleigh team. 3-2. Laws played second base and shortstop. He had two put outs and he also turned a double play. Laws played second base, drove in a run, and tossed a perfect inning in relief as the Grey Greensboro team defeated the Blue Richmond team in the finals.
