Lenoir-Rhyne senior Drew Alford (Statesville, N.C.) shot a two-under 142 to tie for second Tuesday on the final day of the Smoky Mountain Men's Golf Intercollegiate at the Sevierville Country Club River Course.

Alford was one stroke behind the winner, Lee's Matt Emery, who carded a three-under 141 for the tournament.

Clayton State was the top men's squad after finishing with a 578 (+2) on the par-72, 7,088-yard course while Lenoir-Rhyne tied for 14th out of 18 schools with a 620 (+44).

Senior John White (Dudley Shoals, N.C.) tied for 29th overall with a 150 (+6) for the Bears in their opening tournament of the fall 2013 season as well. The Lenoir-Rhyne Men's Golf Team next competes at the Tusculum Fall Golf Classic on September 23 and 24 in Greeneville, Tenn., at the Link Hills Country Club.
