

ASU Women's Golf Finishes Seventh

Written by Ben Winterrowd
Wednesday, 18 September 2013 11:57

Appalachian State University women's golf finished up play in the Great Smokies Intercollegiate on Tuesday which was hosted by Western Carolina.

The Mountaineers carded a 304 in the second round after firing a 294 in the first round on Monday for a total of 598. Western Carolina finished first by carding a two round total of 570. Hannah Craver finished tied for 15th overall after shooting a 74 in the second round. Craver's tournament total was 146. Finishing right behind Craver at 22nd overall individually was Haley Zagoria who tallied a 77 in round two for a total of 148. Emily Stinson finished tied for 26th after shooting a second round total of 76 for a two day total of 149. Madalyn Davis finished with an 77 in the second round and 155 overall to place in a tie for 40th. Lily Yatawara finished 67th with a two day total of 167 after firing an 82 on Tuesday.

The Mountaineers will return to action when they travel to Greenville, N.C. for a tournament hosted by East Carolina. It will span two days – starting Monday, Oct. 7 and finishing on Tuesday, Oct. 8.

Photo Courtesy: Hannah Craver, ASU Athletics