Lenoir-Rhyne University's Garcelle Alequine has been named the South Atlantic Conference Women's Soccer Player Of The Week, league officials announced this afternoon.

Alequine, a sophomore midfielder from Wilmington, Del., finished with two goals and two assists in leading L-R to pair of conference victories last week at home over Coker (3-0) and Lincoln Memorial (3-1) on Wednesday and Saturday, respectively.

Alequine notched both assists in the win over the Cobras before scoring twice in the victory over the Lady Railsplitters.

Alequine, an All-SAC and All-Southeast Region honoree last year, is tied for the team lead in assists (four) this fall to go along with three goals scored and 10 total points.

Lenoir-Rhyne next travels to Jefferson City, Tenn., to face Carson-Newman on Saturday at 5:00 p.m., in a South Atlantic Conference match.
