Watauga High sophomore quarterback Aaron Dobbins has been named the Five Guys Athlete of the Week. Dobbins, who is playing his first full season of varsity football, has been nearly impeccable this season.

He threw for 206 yards and three touchdowns last Friday night in a 42-21 blowout win against St. Stephens at Jack Groce Stadium. Dobbins leads the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference in passing with 712 yards to go along with a league-best 11 TD passes.

The Pioneers take Fred T. Foard in Newton, N.C., tonight. Coverage begins at 6:30 p.m. on AM 1450, WATA and GoBlueridge.net.

Kathleen Mansure of the WHS girl's tennis team won the award last week. Mansure has won three races this season, which includes victories at the Caldwell County Invitational and a victory at a NW3A/4A Pre-Conference meet at Freedom on Wednesday.
