The Carson-Newman Men's Soccer Team (5-3, 2-2) shut out Lenoir-Rhyne (6-4, 2-2), 3-0, in a South Atlantic Conference match Saturday evening at McCown Field.

The Eagles' Ross Frame (Welshpool, Powys, UNITED KINGDOM) scored two second-half goals to help hand the Bears their third loss in the their last four outings.

Carson-Newman opened the scoring in the 17th minute when Kristian Speake (Haverfordwest, Pembrokeshire, UNITED KINGDOM) took advantage of a missed clear by the Lenoir-Rhyne goalkeeper.

Frame rounded out the scoring with two goals after intermission including a header off a corner kick by Sindre Welo (Trondheim, NORWAY) for the third score at the 73:41 mark of the contest.
