For the second consecutive week, Lenoir-Rhyne's Garcelle Alequine was selected as the South Atlantic Conference Women's Soccer Player Of The Week.

Alequine, a sophomore midfielder from Wilmington, Del., tallied three goals in leading L-R to a pair of wins over Belmont Abbey (2-1 in double overtime) and Carson-Newman (3-2) on the road last week.

Alequine scored the match's first two goals in the victory over the Eagles to push the Bears' winning streak to four contests.

Alequine, a 2012 First-Team All-South Atlantic Conference and All-Southeast Region honoree, currently leads the team in goals scored (six) and total points with 16 this fall.

Lenoir-Rhyne (6-2-1, 3-0-1) is now 23-0-1 in its last 24 South Atlantic Conference regular season matches dating back to the 2010 campaign.
