Lees-McRae College senior Tyler Dunn(Jasper, Ga.) has been named to the Conference Carolinas Men's Cross Country Academic all-Conference team for the first time in his career, announced league officials Monday.

Dunn has put together perhaps his best season to date, leading the pack for Lees-McRae in each race so far this fall, including his first career individual victory on October 4 to lead the Bobcats to the team title at the Conference Preview Meet. For his efforts, Dunn was named the league's runner of the week for the first time in his career. The senior harrier has finished among the top 25 in all but two races this season, including a 22nd-place finish at the UNC Asheville Carnival.

Lees-McRae returns to the trails on Friday when the Bobcats travel to Concord, N.C. for the Conference Carolinas Championships.
