Another year, and another trip to the state championships. Watauga High senior Savanna Wood made her fourth trip to the state championships at Pinehurst, N.C., on Monday with a fifth-place finish at the North Carolina High School Athletic Association Class 4A Western Regional at the Brushy Mountain Golf Club in Taylorsville,

N.C.

Wood fired an eight-over-par 80 on the par 72 course, four shots off the lead. Victoria Allred of Pfafftown-Reagan won the regional championship with a four-over-par 76. Moon Cheong of Charlotte-Ardrey Kell finished second, one shot back with a five-over 77.

Patricia Thompson of South Caldwell, who finished behind Wood for the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference championship, finished in 12th place with a 17-over par 89. Wood and Thompson were the only players from the NW3A/4A Conference to qualify for the state championships, which will be held next Monday and Tuesday, October 28-29. The top three teams and the top 17 individuals not associated with those teams advanced on Monday afternoon.

Mary Seramur of the Pioneers finished in a four-way tie for 38th place with a 109. Charlotte-Ardrey Kell won the regional championship with a 248, nosing out the host school, Alexander Central by eight shots. The Cougars, who qualified for state as a team, had a team score of 256. Pfafftown-Reagan finished third with a 267. South Caldwell finished in seventh place with a 295.
