Fred T. Foard High School, led by star pitcher Lexi Schubert, has had a number of players earn performance listings in the North Carolina High School Athletic Association Record Book.

Coach David Schubert provided the documentation for a number of listings, including 12 different ones by the Tigers' outstanding pitcher, who was the 2012-13 Gatorade North Carolina Softball Player of the Year.

Among the performance listings achieved by Schubert was 727 $\frac{1}{3}$ innings pitched for her career, which is third all-time, just 20 innings behind Crystal Cox of Central Cabarrus, who graduated in 2002. Schubert also is currently sixth in career victories with 89, eighth in shutouts in 49, and sixth all-time in strikeouts with 1,290.

Her career earned run average was 0.62, which is in the top 15 all time.

Some of the other listings include 26 wins, 15 shutouts and 390 strikeouts during the 2012 season to go with an 0.44 ERA. Schubert's 328 strikeouts in 2013 and a 10-inning performance in which she fanned 23 McDowell hitters in a 2-1 victory are also listed in the Record Book.

Schubert is currently a freshman and a member of the softball team at USC-Upstate, a Division I school in Spartanburg, S.C., and a member of the Atlantic Sun Conference.

Two Bandys hitters made the single-season home run performance list, as Ashley Oliver hit 10
