The Lenoir-Rhyne University Men's and Women's Golf Teams wrapped up their fall seasons Tuesday in the final round of the 2013 Rock Barn Collegiate Invitational at the Rock Barn Golf & Spa.

On the women's side, L-R tied for 13th with a 696 (+128) on the par-71, 5,865-yard Tom Jackson Course while top-ranked Lynn won the tournament with a three-under 565.

Lenoir-Rhyne sophomore Elizabeth Ewing (Greensboro, N.C.) was the top golfer for the Bears after tying for 55th overall with a 171 (+29). Tarleton State's Isabel Jimenez Perea was women's individual champion after carding a six-under 136.

Perea was joined on the all-tournament team by teammate Jessica Pickwick, Lynn's Samantha Smolen and Louise Manalo and Central Oklahoma's Bethany Darrough.

In the men's tournament, Lenoir-Rhyne finished 10th with a 637 (+61) on the par-72, 7,027-yard Robert Trent Jones, Jr., Course. Queens won with a 571 (+15).

Lenoir-Rhyne was led by senior Mike Dane (Ontario, CANADA), who carded a 151 (+7) to tie for 15th overall while North Greenville's Sam Goodnight was the top men's player.

Goodnight shot a two-over 146 and was joined on the men's all-tournament team by Queens' Freddie Nordhoff and Jordan Bilodeau, USC Aiken's Brandon Robinson-Thompson and Wingate's Benedict Gebhardt.

The tournament concludes the fall season for the Lenoir-Rhyne Men's and Women's Golf Teams.
