Five members of the Lenoir-Rhyne Women's Soccer Team were named to the 2013 All-South Atlantic Conference First and Second Teams, league officials announced today.

Of the five, sophomore forwards Garcelle Alequine (Wilmington, Del.) and Leah Mullins (Kissimmee, Fla.) and sophomore defender Amber Madriaga (Wailuku, Hawaii) were named to the All-SAC First Team.

Alequine leads the team in goals scored (nine) and total points (23) this year while Mullins has seven goals to go along with a team-leading six assists and 20 points.

Madriaga anchors a Lenoir-Rhyne defense which has limited its opponents to just 17 goals in 18 matches played to go along with six shutouts. Madriaga has tallied a goal and two assists so far this season.

Both Madriaga and Mullins earned first-team all-conference accolades for the second consecutive season.
